The architectural drawing consists of two parts. The top part is a cross-section of a roof, showing a gabled structure with a central peak and a smaller peak on the right side. The bottom part is a floor plan of a building complex. It features several rectangular buildings labeled DEL 1 through DEL 7. DEL 1 is a large building on the left. DEL 2 is a smaller building attached to the right side of DEL 1. DEL 3 is a building attached to the right side of DEL 2. DEL 4 is a building attached to the right side of DEL 3. DEL 5 is a building attached to the right side of DEL 4. DEL 6 is a building attached to the right side of DEL 5. DEL 7 is a building attached to the top of DEL 2. A compass rose is located in the bottom right corner of the floor plan, indicating North (N) and South (S).
